

Roi Et Rajabhat University, Thailand
And Baise University, China
Memorandum of Agreement
On Training of Student Exchange

To enhance the exchange and training of international students between Roi Et Rajabhat University in Thailand and Baise University in China, and improve educational and teaching quality, both parties have agreed, based on the principles of equality, voluntariness, complementary advantages, resource sharing, mutual benefits, and common development, to enter into the following agreement through friendly consultations:

I. Cooperation Content

Both parties agree to cooperate in student exchange, student internships, and sharing of course resources, with specific content as follows:

1. The duration of student exchange and internships (one or two semesters) will be specifically determined by both parties, and the duration of study or internship should be no less than 2 months.

2. Principally, student exchange should involve at least 5 to 15 students for a reciprocal exchange.

3. Based on the student exchange, both parties may carry out teaching, research exchanges, and cooperation at the teacher level.

4. Both parties can exchange and share courses, textbooks, scientific research achievements and other materials.

5. Credit is mutually recognized, and specific courses and credits are set based on the talent training program of the other party.

II. Management of the Project

Both parties make the following arrangements for the management of the project:

1. Providing safe, comfortable, and convenient accommodation with basic facilities for teachers and students.

2. Providing the same convenience as for the school's teachers and students for teachers and students who participate the cooperative projects or activities.

3. Arranging the guidance teachers and students to take care of and manage the exchange students. Both parties have the responsibility to educate and manage the exchange students in terms of safety, and the students must strictly observe the laws and regulations and school rules and regulations of the study and internship countries.

4. Both parties shall provide accommodation for the students' internships as much as possible.

5. Both parties are obligated to provide the other with personal information of the teachers instructing the exchanged students, including electronic copies of diplomas, professional titles, teaching qualifications, and other relevant documents, as well as teaching plans and assessment materials for the courses taught. The information about the teachers and teaching plans should be sent to the other party in electronic form within six weeks after the start of teaching. Assessment materials should be mailed to the other party within one month after the completion of the course assessment.

III. Charges

1. Both parties shall implement a reciprocal tuition and accommodation fee waiver for exchanged students (including study and internship). For those exceeding the quota of equal exchange, fees will be charged according to the tuition and accommodation standards of the other party (in the case of 1-2 additional students, the two parties may negotiate whether to waive tuition and accommodation fees).

2. The students shall bear the expenses for the excess water and electricity fees, internet fees, and other fees for the use of paid equipment in the dormitory.

3. Both parties shall assist students to purchase suitable medical insurance and accident insurance at a reasonable price.

4. The relevant expenses for cultural experiences shall be charged according to actual circumstances.

IV. Other Matters

1. The agreement will come into force on the date of signatures for a period of time for five years and may be modified or extended by mutual consent of both parties. To terminate, a written notice must be issued six months in advance, and it shall take effect upon the signature of the president of the other party. If there are any projects or activities that have not been completed, they shall be completed before the termination takes effect.

2. This agreement is written in English and Chinese with two originals per language, where each party holds one original in each language. Two versions have equal legal effect.

For
Roi Et Rajabhat University

K-uchit

Date: 2024/7/5

Witnessed by:

Thanaporn Pantawe

Date: 2024/7/5

For
Baise University

吕嵩松

Date: 2024/7/5

Witnessed by:

王翠玲

Date: 2024/7/5